INTRODUCTION TO THE ALBUM:

“Engele Wat Skree” is the much anticipated new release from Glaskas. This album follows their independent release, “Revolusie, Romantiek, Ruk & Rol” which sold over 10 000 units. The album was recorded at The David Gresham Studios in Johannesburg, with producers Ziggy Adolf (Prime Circle & Wonderboom) and Michael Naranjo (One Day Remains).

Glaskas is a passionate, dedicated and extremely talented trio which consists of Deon Meiring on vocals, guitar, violin and harmonica; Chris van Dyk on bass and Lolke-Louis (Buddah) Claassen on the drums. Formed in 2004, the band hit the scene when they won the Eastern Cape final of the JIP Rockspaaider competition. They released their first album independently and quickly became a household name in the Afrikaans community with the music video for the single 'Verloor Myself' reaching number one on MK89's 6@6 for thirteen weeks straight.
