STREETDATE : 13th October 2008

After more than one million records sold worldwide, "Saint-Germain-des-Prés Café" is about to celebrate its 10th birthday !

On this 10th volume, you will discover a brilliant selection of Nu Jazz tracks, from great classics like SHIRLEY BASSEY revisited by Kenny Dope, like ST GERMAIN (with the standard "My Mama Said"), and like Jill Scott ("Brotha").

You will also discover brand new tracks like the very 60's inspired SoulJazz "PPP : On A Cloud" (on the great Us label Ubiquity), or like the fresh "Некта" (from the German label Infracom). Two excellent remixes are also part of the selection and deserve to be noted : a Jamie Lidell remix by DASHLING SENOR COCONUT, and the trio jazz tribute to Nicole Willis "If This Ain't Love" by ELIZABETH SHEPHERD.

As a 10th birthday is quite an important celebration, Saint-Germain-des-Prés Café has the great pleasure to welcome on the 2nd CD, the British DJ/producer

WILL HOLLAND aka QUANTIC !

QUANTIC managed to have the freedom to explore the prestigious discography of the label thru thoughts for an exclusive Nu Soul, Nu Jazz, Nu Funk mix with some latin vibes since QUANTIC lives in Colombia.

happy Bday !
