INTRODUCTION TO THE ALBUM:

Adam Davis's debut album is a mixture of classical pop that will make the hair on the back of your neck rise and touch listeners in the most sincere way. The album features 12 tracks where four are written by Martin Page, who has written Billboard charting hits and composed for Josh Groban, and features the sure-to-be classic track, 'The Door' which is a beautiful haunting story of faith and hope in times of the deepest darkness. Promising young vocalist, Tumi Thulare, duets with Adam on the album and delivers a strong performance that compliments Adam's timeless sound.

Since childhood, Adam Davis has been destined for greatness. Appearing in many professional productions from the tender age of 13, Adam won many accolades early in his career and continued to fine tune his performance with the aide of studying his passion at the Performing Arts Workshop. Hard work and dedication led Adam to be noticed for his beautiful and powerful voice.

Adam has performed on stage all around the world where he has showcased his immense talent and grabbed the attention of the public in ways that international artists so do. New York was the break Adam needed where he was noticed by many music executives and caught the ears and eye of David Gresham which led to his signing.
