INTRODUCTION TO THE ALBUM:

One of the most successful rock bands in the last 10 years, Nickelback bring you their Ultimate Video Collection. Featuring their biggest hit video's from their historic career, including the hits "How you remind me", "Far away", "Photograph", "Savin Me", "Someday" and their latest smash hit "Rockstar". Nickelback's latest album "All the right reasons" was hailed as the "Album of the decade" by Billboard Magazine in September, after the album produced 5 consecutive top ten radio-airplay hit singles. Like all of Nickelback's albums, All the Right Reasons was born of sincerity, emotional revelation and a genuine love for music, but this time the music also stemmed from necessity – not the necessity of making deadlines or getting albums on the shelf. Rather the necessity of an artist to create, explore and try to understand more about the world around him. Hence the album title, which was a play off the track "Fight For All the Wrong Reasons." Nickelback have continued to produce some of the biggest & most influential rock songs of the new millennium, you simply have to own this DVD!
