INTRODUCTION TO THE ALBUM:

Touted as the “it” band for 2008, ONE DAY REMAINS release their highly anticipated debut album “Sins, Convictions & Confessions”. Hailing from Cape Town the band recorded & relocated to Johannesburg in January 2008 & haven’t looked back since. Already with an established fan base nationwide, this album is bound to be a must have in all rock fans collections this year. Their first single “The Need” had the band play listed on over 20 radio stations nationwide, including charting on 5FM, East Coast Radio & going to number 1 on Highveld, Tuks FM & MFM. The band also signed a deal with SuperSport for their hard edged track “Never Say Die” which will be used as the exclusive theme piece for 2008’s Vodacom Tri-Nations rugby tournament, which will run for the entire duration of the event. The album features 13 groundbreaking tracks, all of which could be a single on various radio formats. Aside from a great record, the band is truly an amazing live band & will be touring the album extensively across South Africa. One Day Remains are here to make a statement in 2008!
