INTRODUCTION TO ALBUM:

In the past decade, Staind have sold more than 12.0 million records worldwide, had four No. 1 singles at mainstream rock radio, seen six more singles break the Top 10, and watched their last three albums debut at No. 1 on the Billboard Album Chart. They have earned their place as one of the most successful rock bands of the new millennium, but that success is something that they refuse to take for granted. “For our new album, we went into the studio with the mindset of making our heaviest record yet,” offers Lewis, “but the record that came out, with us writing in the studio, some of it has flavors of Pink Floyd and some has flavors of straight-up blues. We didn’t use the same rigs that we use onstage, we used all vintage shit, guitars and amps, and I’m pretty psyched about it. The songs are pretty timeless in their texture, whereas typical Staind isn’t, sonic wise, necessarily timeless.”
